

Event program

Tony Craddock from Pinion Advisory, will facilitate discussion on the day between growers and researchers at the following trial locations:

Site 1: 8.45am for 9am start

- Trial – Establishing canola in dry conditions, funded by the SA Drought Hub, including discussion on growers' approaches to canola this year.
- Speaker – Ryan Laidlaw, AgXtra
- Location – Jack Schulz's on Pine Hut Road. View on Google Maps

Site 2: 10.15am

- Trial – Optimal flowering period for wheat and barley (time of sowing trial), funded by the SA Grain Industry Trust
- Speaker – Brendan Kupke, SARDI
- Location – Scott and Zoe Starkey's on Ridley Road. View on Google Maps

Site 3: 11.30pm

- Trial – Lentil and pea time of sowing and soil type influences, funded by the SA Drought Hub, including discussion on lentil agronomy.
- Speaker – Marni Griffiths, SA Drought Hub Extension Officer – Trainee, SARDI
- Location – Steen and Deanna Paech's on Wachtel Road. View on Google Maps

Lunch: 12.30pm

- Thanks to Ronco Motors
- Speaker – Ashley Lukey, Ronco Motors, with a Seed Terminator demonstration
- Location – Palmer Pavilion at Collier Park. View on Google Maps

Site 4: 2pm

- Trial – National Variety Trial, funded by GRDC. Trial visit will also review nitrogen application and risk management at this point in the season.
- Speakers – Brendan Kupke, SARDI and Tony Craddock, Pinion
- Location – Steen and Deanna Paech's on Randell Road. View on Google Maps

Finish: 3pm

With special thanks to our crop walk supporters:
– Trial partners: GRDC, SAGIT and the SA Drought Hub
– Gold sponsor: Coopers of Mount Pleasant
– Lunch sponsor: Ronco Motors

WHEN AND WHERE

WHEN: Friday 22 September 2023

TIME: 8.45am for 9am start

WHERE: Starting at first trial site listed in program

REGISTRATION

Please register your attendance by using this link
<https://SpringCropWalk2023.eventbrite.com.au>

Registration is essential for biosecurity/traceability and catering.