

Friday
23 August 2024

Interested in crop rotations that drive profitability whilst managing risk?

Interested in crop rotations and driving profitability whilst managing risk?

Murray Plains Farmers is hosting a workshop at the Pretoria Hotel. The workshop will be facilitated by Tony Craddock and Emily Chambers from Pinion Advisory and is funded by GRDC's RiskWi$e program.

AGENDA
TIME	TITLE	PRESENTER
9.00am	Welcome
9.15am	Morning Session <ul style="list-style-type: none">Principles driving sound crop rotations and sequencesPutting crop sequencing theory into practiceRotation planning tools	Tony Craddock Agribusiness Consultant, Pinion Advisory Emily Chambers Graduate Agribusiness Consultant, Pinion Advisory
10.45am	Morning Tea
11.00am	Morning Session continued <ul style="list-style-type: none">Assessing profitability of crop sequencesWhat are high risk vs low risk rotations for the Murray Plains?	Tony Craddock Emily Chambers
12.30pm	Lunch and Close

WHERE AND WHEN
VENUE: Pretoria Hotel 50 Randell Street MANNUM SA 5238
WHEN: Friday 23rd august 2024
TIME: 9.00am to 12.30pm
Morning tea and lunch included.

REGISTRATION
CropRotations.eventbrite.com.au Registration is essential

FURTHER INFORMATION
ANITA GIARRATANO 08 8332 3277 events@agcommunicators.com.au